Welcome
To Our School

The first day of rain and we have the Art Show and Wheelathon this afternoon!! Let's hope that it will be kind enough to let us go ahead with the Wheelathon. The Art show will happen whatever happens with the weather.

You will notice a change in the office and when you phone us as Pam is on leave until May. Fern is in the office and will be the person who will talk to you when you contact us. She will also phone you if your child is absent and you have not let us know. Please save her a phone call by letting us know on the absence line—it is one of the choices when you phone the school.

This term ends at 3pm on Friday 12 April.

Thank you to all those parents who have so generously contributed to the school this term. Parents have helped with coaching, fundraising and supporting teachers and children with the artwork. A big thank you from all of us.

We have been fortunate to have donations of a variety of things for the children this term and want to say thank you to:

New World Tokoroa for the mandarins—we don't get free fruit for schools so it is wonderful to have fruit for our children!

Taupo Triathlon for the water bottles –one for each child is a real bonus for classrooms.

Life in Ruma Iwa

I believe that New Zealand is one of the most forgiving, free and most comfortable countries in the world because New Zealand will take in and give homes to many different types of people.

Amerikus

I am angry about what happened in Christchurch. I can not believe how many people lost their lives.

Grady

I believe that New Zealand is one of the many places in the world that love people for who they are. We also care about people, even if they are different to us.
